Last Concert of Season Next Friday Evening

As announced in last week's issue, the beautiful "Rose Maiden" cantata will be sung by the Narberth Choral Society on Friday evening, May 12, in the High School Auditorium.

This will be the second and last local concert of the second season of the Narberth Choral Society. It is being given mainly for the sustaining and associate members of the Choral and friends. The admissions are, as usual, $1.00, and can be secured from any Choral members, or at Howard's, or the Main Line Drug Store.

Due to the change of date from the 5th to the 12th of May, the members of the Philadelphia Orchestra cannot accompany the chorus, but the Choral management has engaged instead fifteen members of the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Philadelphia, composed entirely of professional women musicians splendidly trained by J. W. F. Leman, the former conductor of the Leman Symphony Orchestra of Atlantic City. This orchestra is appearing in many "Music Week" concerts. It assisted the Philadelphia Music Club at the Lyric Theatre on Sunday last; on Tuesday played in the hall room of the Bellevue-Stratford; on Friday played at Keith's at noon and in the evening at Swarthmore College with Mr. Thunder and the Women's Club Chorus, etc., etc.

The Choral Society is greatly pleased to be able to offer this inspiring instrumental and vocal music to Narberth. Another pleasing feature is that several of our talented local singers will appear as soloists on this program.

There is no other cantata with more dulcet and tuneful harmony than "The Rose Maiden." Each and every chorus, solo, duet and trio carries a beautiful theme and enhancing melody. It is considered one of the loveliest cantatas ever composed. It is a pretty fairy tale portraying the Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, who prays of the newly returned Spring that he bestow upon her the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her, while she sleeps, into the form of a beautiful girl.

Under the name of "Roseblossom," she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks. She meets a girl who is betrayed and deserted by her lover, loses her senses and dies brokenhearted.

This, however, does not deter Roseblossom from her search.

CARD PARTY FOR WOMEN'S CLUB BUILDING FUND.

A small but jolly crowd attended the Bridge and Five Hundred Party given Friday evening, April 28, in the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Phoebe Harris won first prize in five hundred and Mrs. Harry Miller first in bridge. Ice cream and home-made cakes were served.

The committee wish to thank the following for donating prizes: John Albrecht, florist; The Betty Shop, Bergner Hardware Co., Howard Cotter, Howard Davis, Mrs. Wm. Dethard, J. B. Evans, Mrs. Farmer, Darlington's, S. Kind & Sons, Wm. S. Howard, Imperial Grocery, Lewis' Art Store, Main Line Drug Store, Mrs. Kuylenstjerna, Mrs. R. J. Nash, Narberth Fruit Store, New Park Quality Shop, H. Ricklin, Jacob Reed's Sons, N. Snellenberg & Co., Ray Weiss, Wohler's Nurseries, and two members of the committee, as well as those who contributed fine cakes.

Those on the committee were: Mrs. Lee R. Manchester, Mrs. W. A. Kelley, Mrs. R. D. MacGriffin, Mrs. Joseph H. Miller, Mrs. H. G. Reeves, Mrs. Charles H. Shaw.

LUTHERAN CONGREGATION BUYS LOT.

The Holy Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, which was organized a few months ago and has been making good progress, this week purchased the lot at the corner of Narberth and Woodbine avenues.

This is considered to be one of the few remaining choice sites within the Borough limits, and the congregation is to be congratulated in being able to secure such a desirable location for their church.

St. Margaret's Packed for Both Performances

The advent of St. Margaret's Minstrels was a tremendous triumph. The hall was taxed to its capacity at both performances, April 25 and 26, each admission a dollar, and with glad acclaim every person present agreed that "Nellie Narberth" was supremely successful, splendid and spectacular. Many are the calls for it repetition, and it would indeed be regretful if they were not observed.

The personal achievements of each individual member of the cast were numerous and outstanding and praise cannot be properly distributed unless it includes every solitary feature of the most excellent performance. The various parts were conducted with a finish and hilarity that approximated the best professional standards and friends and neighbors stand in amazement at the extraordinary accomplishment. Acres of diamonds again are with us.

The stage settings were the handiwork of an artist, Clarence J. Gallagher by name, while the musical direction of Thomas A. Quinn makes one wonder why the artistic world and the girls allow him his steadfastly stolid single solitude. It's plain that Leopold holds his job simply because Sir Thomas doesn't want it.

Messrs. Case, Kerigan, Purcell and Torchiana were the corner men, as Mr. Quinn, Sr., would say, and an apt name, too, for if there ever was a corner in risibilities they sure did possess it. The soloists included Messrs. Corey, Collins, Tipkiss, McGarrity, Kelley, and Rudolph, not overlooking Henry Smith's robust rendering of "When I Lived in Tennessee." It is proper to point out, however, that this line was only given Mr. Smith after a previous singer had been deprived of it as a result of gross chicanery and favoritism. The said previous singer was much better and more talented in every way, but he simply lacked the influence.

Albert C. Miller was a master of mirth in his conduct of the school room sketch, but report comes that he feels he has little left to live for unless he reveals that which he had pledged himself to keep a deep and dark secret, i.e., the nature of the confidential conversation which occurred between him and Frank Purcell in the midst of the playlet. It would indeed be an act of sweet and gracious charity, both to Allie and a waiting world, if his obligation were remitted so that he could be free to speak. Won't somebody please move to have this accomplished? "Nellie Narberth" was produced under the direction of William Lawrence, to whom the troupe desires to pay public tribute as a gentleman and highly talented coach. They don't come better.

SELLS PAPER ROUTE.

Howard E. Davis Disposes of Narberth Newspaper Delivery.

Howard E. Davis, who has distributed morning newspapers in Narberth for sixteen years, has sold the route. The purchaser of the business is Wilford C. Curry, a newcomer in Narberth, living in the Avon Apartments.

Mr. Davis established the business sixteen years ago, at which time the route covered a great deal of the district near Narberth. As the population increased, parts of the route were sold, until, of recent years it has included only Narberth, serving about a thousand homes.

Before entering the newspaper business, Mr. Davis conducted a milk delivery service in Narberth. He was in this business for 18 years, finally selling out to George Markle. Back in those days the milk was delivered on foot to the dozen houses in Narberth, and the delivery extended to many parts of the country near by.

The regularity with which Narberth people have been accustomed to receive their paper in the morning, rain or shine, winter or summer, has enabled Mr. Davis to work up a very large route, and an immense amount of real good-will. It is to be hoped that his successor will follow the good example set by Mr. Davis.

The disposal of the delivery will enable Mr. Davis and his son Gene to devote a greater amount of time to the store, at which the newspapers, including "Our Town," will be sold over the counter as in the past.

Dirt and Trash to Depart in Annual Clean-up Week

Next Week, May 8-13 Time to Clean Up and Paint Up

The Narberth Civic Association will hold its annual Clean Up Week, from May 8th to 13th.

Wednesday, May 10th will be Clean Up Day. On that date, teams of the Highway Department will collect all rubbish placed in front of properties near the sidewalk.

A few points:

No ashes collected this week.

Regular ash collection week of May 22nd.

Start at the garret or the cellar, but start on Monday.

Clean out the garret.

Burn the garden rubbish, but burn it in a stove or a wire basket.

Sweep, mop, dust and scrub.

Soap and water applied to woodwork is intensely discouraging to disease germs.

Old clothes you have already bundled and sent to the Postmaster.

Whitewash the cellar. Lime is a good disinfectant.

Put copper screen wire on the cellar windows.

Look over your door and window screens.

Keep out house-flies and mosquitoes—they carry disease.

Open all the doors and windows and air the house.

Sunlight is a great germ destroyer—air your rugs, carpets and draperies.

Don't burn your neighbor's shingle roof with sparks from your fire.

Inspect roof gutters, flower pots, cisterns, wells, rain barrels and drains for stagnant water.

Standing water breeds mosquitoes. Eliminate their breeding places.

Eliminate fly breeding places.

Swat the fly early—the grandparents of a million flies in June.

See that your garbage pail stands clear of the ground.

See that your garbage pail has a tight lid that dogs (muzzled?) can not knock off.

Buy a new garbage pail—buy it in Narberth.

Stop up rat holes and set rat traps or poison.

Stables and stable yards should be cleaned and manure hauled away.

The ground upon which manure heaps have rested should be sprinkled with a solution of borax 1 lb. to 3 gallons of water or with kerosene. This will stop the fly before he starts to kill the babies.

All buildings in which crowds congregate should be included in the clean up.

No dump should be located on a watershed.

Don't carry a barrel to the curb and then fill it with rocks, the drivers are human.

Rubbish collection Wednesday the 10th.

Clean up.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

While attempting to cross the tracks at Narberth station last Saturday morning, Mr. J. D. Drips, father of Mrs. C. M. McCracken, 106 Merion avenue, was struck and instantly killed by an express electric train.

The safety fence was down because of work on track repairs, and the old man failed to hear the noise of the approaching train or the warning cries of those waiting on the platform.

ROBBERY.

On Tuesday evening of this week neighbors noticed that the window on the front porch of the home of Mr. Peter F. McCool, 323 North Narberth avenue, was open.

The police were notified and they entered the house. It was found that the house had been pretty well ransacked, drawers and closets opened, and jewel boxes emptied.

Mr. and Mrs. McCool have been away, at McKee's Rocks, Pa., for some weeks.

It is reported that a gas stove exploded in a Narberth home a few days ago when the man and wife residing therein were both blown out the back door. This is said to be the first time these folks have gone out together for several years.

The FIRESIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millang, and two sons, David and Frank, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Meyer, of Chestnut Ave., until Sunday, when they will leave for Capitola, California, where they plan to make their home. Mrs. Millang will be remembered as Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Narberth.

Mr. Theodore Wolf, of Elm Terrace, has returned from a six weeks' trip in New York State.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pattison, Jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Thomas Woolford Pattison, on Tuesday, May 2nd. Mother and child are both doing nicely.

Don't forget to save May 20 for a repetition of "Shame on Bunny," the wonderful music comedy success of the Juniors. At the School Auditorium. Ask those who saw it!!!

A charming wedding took place at St. Paul's Church, Overbrook, on Thursday noon, when Miss Grace Haight, of Narberth, became the bride of Mr. Roy Griffith, also of Narberth, the Rev. Robert Norwood officiating. After a wedding trip, the bride and groom will make their home in Ardmore, where they have taken apartments.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Bertha Redifer to Mr. Arthur P. Miller on Saturday, May thirteenth, at St. John's Church, Cynwyd. Miss Lillian Redifer, sister of the bride-to-be, will arrive home Wednesday from Birmingham School, New York, to attend the wedding.

Mrs. Thomas Jacoby and Mrs. Arthur Gehman and son Frederick, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday, April 30th with Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Gottshall, of Conway Ave.

A supper party was held last Saturday evening to celebrate the twenty-first birthday of Philip A. Livingston, of Chestnut avenue. The guests were the Misses Katharine Diller, Frances Drew, Meriam Spade and Freda Strelau, Messrs. Paul W. Bowman and Charles Hodge, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Mr. W. Wyclif Walton, of Haverford.

Miss Mary H. Stretch, of West Philadelphia, was the guest of Mrs. Charles M. Irwin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bently motored to Ocean City, N. J., over last week-end with several men of the Providence Life Insurance Company and their wives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weiss, Miss Alma Weiss and Mr. L. Helms drove to Baltimore Sunday.

Mr. John W. Dismant, 216 Sabine Ave., who died at his home on Wednesday, April 26th, was buried on Saturday, April 29th, from Oliver Bair's rooms in Philadelphia. Mr. Dismant practiced dentistry in the Otis Bldg., in Philadelphia.

A pretty custom was observed in honor of May Day, when the residents of Narberth Park, under the direction of Mr. Geo. A. Mahl, had a gayly decked May-pole erected in the Park on May 1st. The children spent a delightful afternoon partaking in games and dances around the May-pole, while the "grown-ups" had their share in the fete in the evening.

Civic Association Extends Invitation to Every Resident to Hear Interesting Talk by Big Game Hunter

The annual meeting of the Narberth Civic Association, which will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building next Thursday evening, May 11th, will be addressed by Mr. Alfred M. Collins, of Bryn Mawr.

Mr. Collins is nationally known as a traveler and lecturer. In 1911 and 1912 he made a hunting expedition to British East Africa in the interest of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences. In 1914 he visited Northwestern Alaska and Northeastern Siberia, on this trip traveling as far north as Herald and Wrangel Islands.

In 1915 Mr. Collins was one of the directors of the Collins-Day South American Expedition, which traveled across the continent from Mollendo, Peru, to the mouth of the Amazon. This trip was made in the interests of the Field Museum of Natural History, Chicago, and the American Museum of Natural History, New York.

Mr. Collins was on the point of returning to Africa when the war broke out, and he entered the service. He attained the rank of Major in the Ordnance Reserve Corps, and served both at home and abroad. Previous to this he had sent an expedition to Africa under the direction of Professor Gardner, whom he planned to join later. 3,000 specimens were brought back and presented to the Smithsonian Institute, Washington. In this collection were the first three gorillas ever brought out of Africa by Americans.

The speaker is Past President of the Main Line Citizens' Association, is a Director of the Suburban Association, and lives at Bryn Mawr. He is President of the Philadelphia Geographical Society, and honorary life member of the American Museum of Natural History, and a member of the Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences.

The meeting will be open to all residents of Narberth, men and women. The talk will be illustrated. A large crowd is expected, for, in addition to being the annual meeting, the interest in hearing a speaker of this caliber should appeal to many.

With this annual meeting the Narberth Civic Association completes the eighth year of its existence.

The Civic Association.

The Narberth Civic Association was founded in March, 1914, by a group of citizens interested in the improvement, beautifying and co-ordinating of the town. Its first President was Mr. George M. Henry, later Burgess of Narberth.

From its inception, the Civic Association became a great power for the upbuilding and betterment of the community. The first, and in all probability, greatest accomplishment of the organization was the Narberth Pageant held in June, 1914, on the plot of ground now occupied by the homes of Messrs. Jacobs and Hillegas. This Pageant, depicting the history of Narberth from the time of the aborigines to the present, was carried through by Mrs. C. R. Blackall, who originated the idea, assisted by a large and enthusiastic body of citizens. Very wide publicity was given the project, and Narberth became one of the most talked-of communities in the country. Hundreds of columns were published about it, and many people were attracted to the town as a place of residence.

The next important step was the acquisition of a newspaper. The first number of Our Town, the official organ of the Civic Association, appeared October 15, 1914. Mrs. C. R. Blackall was Editor, W. Arthur Cole, Business Manager, and Henry C. Gara, Advertising Manager. Mrs. Blackall was succeeded as Editor by W. Arthur Cole and E. A. Muschamp, who were, in turn succeeded by Harry A. Jacobs, and in March, 1921, by the present Editor. Our Town has appeared continuously since its inception, and has made itself indispensable to every resident.

Other activities of the Association have been the turning of an unsightly swamp into the beautiful Narbrook Park, the establishment of the annual Clean-Up Week, Flower and Garden Contests, and numerous other efforts toward the betterment of the town.

Thursday's meeting is free to everyone. The dues of the Association are but one dollar per year, and every resident should be a member. Our Town stands as Narberth's biggest unifying medium, but, with the proper support and enthusiasm, there is much more that the Narberth Civic Association can accomplish.

TENNIS BOYS TO FROLIC

At two o'clock sharp, Saturday afternoon, May 6th, weather permitting, some eighty or ninety odd tennis hounds will be unleashed for the season of 1922 and, baying and barking, will scamper forth on the courts of the Narberth Tennis Association at Montgomery and Haverford Avenues to exhibit their skill in swatting the little rubber pill.

Many notables are expected to perform: The Allen Bros., Foot and Ease; the Dashing Fretz Troupe, Bill, Bob and Frank; the Redifer Kids; the Evans Twins and the Harris Tribe.

Individual acts will be staged by Nemo (Roy) Williams, who reports that he may be induced to wear his little black helmet, in which he first appeared this winter to the consternation of his many friends. His honor Bill Hall blushing refused to deliver an oration as part of the opening exercises.

Through the enterprise of our new police force, what appeared to be a mystery was disclosed to be merely a clever advertising scheme. On Thursday night guests at The General Wayne Inn noticed a figure in a white coat mysteriously moving about the tennis courts. The police were immediately summoned and when the figure was apprehended, it proved to be no other than Doc Howard who was placarding the with signs advertising liniments, lotion, etc. Said the Doc in explanation of his conduct—"There'll be many sore backs, arms and legs among the boys on Sunday, and I wanted them to know where they could get relief."

The friends of the Club are cordially invited to come up to the courts and see the boys in action.

Membership in the Narberth Tennis Association may be had by applying to any member or to Wm. J. Bailey, 228 Essex Ave. Phone 311 W.

Miss Dorothy Irwin spent the week-end with West Philadelphia friends.

A TRIBUTE

For some good hidden reason, God allowed our old friend, Mr. J. D. Dripps, to be killed by a train last Saturday morning. The Emperor Augustus once in a moment of displeasure, crushed upon the floor the priceless crystal goblet of his friend, Vedius Pollio. But in the inscrutable providence that renews, under tragic circumstances, this rare and rich life of an old saint, one can only wonder and say, "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Mr. Dripps was a man of wonderful innate ability, initiative and energy. If he had been a man of the schools, he would doubtless have set his part of the world on fire. He was old fashioned in his faith; believed the Bible from lid to lid, and had no trouble about miracles. When he called for his spies, his grandchildren always looked for them on the top of his Bible. He was a member of the Men's Bible Class of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, of which I have been one of the teachers, and I am sure this attempt at an appreciation will be approved by the class. When I would see him stepping up on my threshold on a Sunday afternoon, I knew I had caught a good lesson that morning "before" Mr. Dripps came in to say as much, and also how he was reminded of some sermon or address he had heard in the long ago. He was always "a keen observer," and I am sure it was as fascinating to me to explore his memory (God's priceless gift to old folks), as it was for Livingstone to push on in Africa.

"He didn't even have time to offer a little prayer before he went," his broken-hearted daughter was saying. But he did not need any time; for he had settled the great question of the future life in his youth. He had been a life-long "soldier of the Cross."

Out of a fine old country home in Indiana County, he sent forth three daughters, Mrs. Martin, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Bracken, of Nebraska, and Mrs. McCracken, of Narberth, who have married, set up their own homes, and are busy in all good works in their communities and churches. His wife, their mother, died a number of years ago.

When his sudden summons came, he was starting home. He reached Home—but it was the upper and better one! Howard A. Banks.

Mr. L. Helms, of Maple Ave., is on a business trip to Gettysburg and other points in the western part of the State.

Mrs. Thos. F. Kearney and daughters Rose and Mary, of Dunmore, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. F. Corradeth, of Merion Ave.

Mrs. Charles H. Shaw, of Avon Road, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. W. H. H. Morgan, of Amherst, Mass.

THE TOWER OF BABBLE

By Collum Righter

The action of the Civic Association Directors at their special meeting spurs the Column to congratulatory comment. With Hon. Livingston in the Editorial chair for another term we can see nothing to prevent Our Town's achieving that success toward which it not only aims but shoots.

Then again, our mind is set at ease. Any other Editor upon assuming charge would probably make it his first job to put the axe to the Column and fire forthwith. As far as we know now, we shall still hang on—even though it may be the mere skin of our teeth.

What tickles us is that despite everything we are rapidly becoming the most trusted mouth in the whole Borough in the minds of a certain few who make to be criticized. "Holdum," say we. After all is said and done, the Road to Fame is bad on tires.

Last Sunday (after church) we inspected seventy-nine seven passenger cars and one hundred and eighty-six five passenger cars in an effort to isolate our Esteemed Editor in the rear seat of one or more of them. But all in vain. We hope someone felt the suite of conscience sufficiently to take him riding after reading his last week's editorial upon the subject. Had we been doing the thing we would have simply inserted a classified ad in Our Town under "Hauling Wanted."

And Dr. Gram states that all raw milk will be inspected at its source, regardless of where that source may be. Well, under those conditions, you can put it down in the chimney corner with red chalk that the job of Inspector will be no sinecure.

Not by a long shot. We know. At one time in our existence we attempted to inspect milk at its source. That one time was quite enough. The source wanted us in the face with a tail full of horns and then kicked us clear across the barn yard.

Esteemed Markie is most convincing with his story of Soapstone Farnus AA Milk. We will grant all that he says in the way of its origin, purity and what not else. But the point is, everyone can't be an AA customer. Why not tell us about the A milk also and settle the matter for good and all? It would be worth while. From where we sit we can see a certain lady who purchases an average of fifteen dollars worth of it every month and the "Fresher by a Day" fellow is busy on her trail. So out with it, George. Tell us about A, or by the great horn spoon we'll swing no further butter-milk at your fount.

The Column, ever thoughtful of the comfort of our citizens and the progress of our Civic Improvement as well, ventures a suggestion to the Rt. Hon. B. Council touching a scheme to hasten operations upon the Playground. It is both simple and inexpensive and will not require much labor on their part to adopt it.

Turn some Narberth golfers loose on the tract. We know of a well established local foursome that raises more turf and digs more dirt per hour than anyone would dare think about, almost.

It might not be a bad plan for Messrs. Sperry and Ward to join forces with Postmaster General Work and broadcast Esteemed P. M. Hawa's "Travels of a Letter" message out (California way. There is a reason, Hon. Muschamp sent us a post card from Santa Something-or-other. Our last name was mis-spelled. Our middle initial was wrong and our home number was only two out of the way. Otherwise it was all right. But we got it—we got it.

So from henceforth, anyone who impugns the efficiency of the Narberth Postmaster and his dainty bobbed-headed (and otherwise), horn-rimmed assistants will have the Column after them with scribular vituperation.

While we cannot vouch for the truth of it, rumor says that Hon. Muschamp went West on a special mission for the Curtis Publishing Company—to cull the Giant Red-wood Forests of California for a tree large enough for a Saturday Evening Post.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Executive Board American Legion Auxiliary directing that one of the activities of each Auxiliary unit will be the conducting of an annual Poppy Sale prior to each Memorial Day, the Narberth Unit Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, will conduct such a sale on Saturday, May 27th, and Monday, May 29th, at a centrally located booth in the business district of Narberth Borough.

The Auxiliary has adopted the Poppy as its Memorial Flower, to be worn and displayed on Memorial Day in sacred memory of the service and sacrifice of those that lie at rest. The memory of those deeds of valor and the supreme sacrifice made that our free institutions might be safe and you and I, our children, and our children's children, can live in peace and security against autonomy in its most hideous form, should always live.

Let every citizen, man, woman, and child, wear a Poppy on Memorial Day, May 30th, 1922, a token of loving remembrance of life freely given for the ideals we cherish.

The net proceeds of this sale will be used for the welfare work of the Legion Auxiliary among the ex-service men and their families.

The Women's Auxiliary will meet as usual in the Parish House on Thursday morning.

On Sunday, May 14th, at eight o'clock, the Junior choir will render a choral even song in the Church. The boys of this choir worked very hard and faithfully all winter, and as a proof of their appreciation of their regular attendance and good work at each rehearsal, the Vestry mean to send them with their leader, Mr. David Spratt, to camp at Island Heights during the summer.

Mr. Spratt has prepared a rather ambitious program for this service, including some capella work, in order to show just what progress the boys have made, and a very cordial invitation is extended to all lovers of boys' choirs and to those who are specially interested in our own boys to enjoy the service with us. The offertory will be given to them for their choir camp fund.

The last Even Song of the season will be given on Sunday, June 11th, when the senior choir will render a program of Russian music.

Choral Concert

She is wooed by a handsome forester. And the well-known sprightly "Bridal Chorus" announces their love marriage.

They live in the forests for several years in dreams of joy and gladness. But, alas! Peace and joy are but heralds of tears, and one morn he seeks the forest, but ere the day is done his comrades bear him homeward, slain by an outlaw's gun.

Through weary months of winter, Roseblossom woke only to weep and mourn the loss of her beloved, and when the swallows returned she, too, had fallen asleep.

The Chorus of Elves sings their farewell song to the Queen, and the beautiful finale beckons:

"Yea! Even as die the roses,
Must die the truest heart,
And they that love must part.
But yet, O God, we praise Thee
Who blindest night and morn,
Too lovely were Thy Roses
Were they without a thorn!"

A Proclamation

To the People of Narberth:

For the past five years your Borough Council has, through its Highway Department, cooperated with the Narberth Civic Association in conducting a campaign to help your residents make their houses and grounds more attractive by providing a means of disposing of a designated rubbish.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, through its Department of Health, has requested that all communities conduct such campaigns as a health measure and have designated a week to be known as a Clean Up Week.

May 8th to May 13th are the days fixed for Narberth, and arrangements have been made by the Civic Association with our Highway Department to collect all rubbish placed in the front of properties, near the sidewalk, on Wednesday, May 10th.

It is the wish of your Burgess and Borough Council that every resident cooperate in this good endeavor, and that when the campaign has terminated for this season Narberth's houses and streets will present a neat, clean, orderly and attractive appearance.

CARL B. METZGER, Burgess.

Narberth, Pa., May 3, 1922.

INTERESTING PROGRAM OF THE COMMUNITY CLUB'S CLOSING MEETING

Our last meeting of the season was held on Tuesday, May 2nd, and was one of the most interesting and enjoyable of the year.

In the absence of Mrs. Batchelor, the meeting was led by Mrs. Ross, giving us an excellent idea of her ability to fill the Chair for the next term.

After the regular business of the Club was disposed of, a short meeting of the Corporation was held to elect four members for the Board of Directors. The four candidates elected were Mrs. A. B. Ross, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. J. S. Harris, and the President of the Junior Community Club.

The musical program was a rare treat. The first number was played by Mrs. Ross, first piano, and Mrs. Elsie Hand Klinger, of Philadelphia, second piano. The second number was by Mrs. Klinger and Miss Julia Foster, a young pianist, just appearing before the public.

The speaker for the day was Dr. James T. Lichtenberger, Professor of Sociology at the University of Pennsylvania. The Club is most fortunate in having speakers of such note, and we hope Dr. Lichtenberger will speak to us again to give all the members the opportunity to hear him.

The text of his talk was "Constructive Social Reform." He contrasted the old ideas and methods of coping with social evils with the modern ones of the present generation.

The pitch of his idea was that evil must be corrected by removing the conditions that cause such evil, and not by the punishment for the effect. He cited disease, poverty, mental defectiveness, and crime as some of the Social Evils, that must be destroyed at their source.

In summing up his discourse he said that no progress can be made by condemning crime, but only by the right kind of influences and by helping conditions.

BISHOP KENRICK COUNCIL, K. OF
C., HAS SUCCESSFUL CARD PARTY.

Living up to all expectations, the card party held by Bishop Kenrick Council, K. of C., at the Women's Club, Ardmore, last week proved to be one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever held in the vicinity. More than 500 "card sharps" and "dance wizards" filled both halls to capacity, and both young and old, thin and stout, had an enjoyable evening, although it must be admitted the stout ones found traffic rather congested on the dance floor. The door prize was won by Mr. Isadore Taback, of Norristown, and Mr. Taback went home $10.00 wealthier. The ladies' first card prize, in the form of an artistic and fully equipped sewing outfit, was awarded to Mrs. Joseph Hurley, of Ardmore, while Mr. John Kerrigan, also of Ardmore, will no longer have to carry his laundry up old Mill Creek in a newspaper, for now he can use the handsome traveling bag which he won as the men's first prize.

The Council's regular meeting was held on Friday evening, and some important business transacted. The matter of having a Country Club was discussed, and from all indications the members will have a beautiful clubhouse in which to spend their week-ends this coming summer, although definite arrangements have not as yet been completed.

The end of this month will mark the first anniversary of the institution of the Council in Ardmore, and during the past year a remarkable record has been made, in that the membership has been increased 100% and is still growing. Plans are being formulated for a fitting celebration of the Council's first birthday, which will probably take place on Sunday, May 28th, in the form of a Pontifical Mass at St. Colman's Church, Ardmore, and a reception on Monday evening, May 29th.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT

The Elm Glee Club, of Narberth, will give its first concert in the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, May 23rd. The Club will be assisted by Mr. Walter Harshaw, basso, of Philadelphia, whose splendid voice delighted those who heard him in the "Crucifixion" on Palm Sunday evening at the Methodist Church. Mrs. John MacGarvey, of Philadelphia, will be the soprano soloist, Mrs. George M. Davis, the reader.

The Kayceckay String Trio will be another attraction. You cannot afford to miss this treat at such a reasonable price.

Tickets may be secured from the members of the Club, Reiss, Foote, Perlin, Stanley, Roger, Webb, Miller, etc. There will be room on the window sills for those who cannot find a seat.

NEW MILK DELIVERY.

On May 1st, the Highland Dairies, of Bryn Mawr, Pa., established a regular milk delivery service in Narberth. For some weeks previous to this time, a small trial service was maintained.

In the new service, they plan to furnish Narberth with the highest grade sanitary milk obtainable. The herd of Ayrshire cows from which the nursery milk is obtained comprises only descendants from the original herd imported from the North of Scotland 25 years ago, the first herd of Ayrshires in this district.

The Highland Dairies are under the management of Mr. E. W. Woolman, whose ancestors, in 1804, established the first milk business in this part of the country.
